

Presents Mariah Parker's Indo Latin Jazz Ensemble

featuring Mariah Parker (piano, santur), Paul McCandless (woodwinds, horns), Matthew Montfort (guitars), Kash Killion (bass, cello), Sameer Gupta (percussion and tabla)

Monday, April 19 at 8 pm
Yoshi's Jazz Club

510 Embarcadero West
Jack London Square, Oakland

Tix: $18

Info: Call 510.238.9200 or visit www.yoshis.com

The concert will feature new compositions along with material from Mariah's debut CD, Sangria, which has received airplay on over 385 New World, Jazz, and latin radio programs. The recording has earned 76 media and chart placements, including rave reviews such as the following:

"Parker and friends blend the rhythmic syncopations of Latin jazz music with the entrancing, asymmetrical meters of East Indian rhythms resulting in first-class world music." — LATIN BEAT MAGAZINE

"Dazzling debut... Parker's subtle and sensuous sounds reflect exotic flavors of India, the Middle East and Latin America." — PALO ALTO DAILY NEWS

"This collection of eight original instrumentals by Mariah Parker is just one of many examples of the infusion of East Indian music into Western music, but to my ears one of the most successful." — AUDIOPHILE AUDITION

"Mariah Parker's Indo Latin Jazz Ensemble packed Yoshi's in Jack London Square, and the incredible live performance had the audience roaring and screaming for more of the Indo-Latin jazz rhythms filling the celebrated jazz club during the release event for Mariah Parker's debut recording, Sangria. The concert goes were so spirited and enthusiastic as the performance progressed throughout the evening, the roar of their response to Mariah Parker's compositions brought the jazz club to a feverish pitch that rocked the building to its foundation." — THE BERKELEY DAILY PLANET

For more info and to listen, visit www.mariahparkermusic.com and www.ancient-future.com

PLAY AUDIO ▶

